

please note my concern that changing the FCC ruling is not in America's best interest. I resent the fashion in which special interests have been given opportunity of gain at the expense of freedom of speech and principles of American Democracy.